A Blackfoot man has been reappointed by the State as a Division Commissioner with Flood Control District 7, the Idaho Department of Water Resources said today.

Michael J. Birch was re-appointed as Division 1 Commissioner for the District. He will serve a term that ends in January 2007. He was reappointed by Karl J. Dreher, IDWR Director.

Flood Control District No. 7 encompasses land within the floodplain of the Blackfoot River from its confluence with the Snake River upstream approximately 12 miles.
